Friday, Panel discussion
“Managing Tension between Innovation and Sustainability”

Broad Overview

- Definitions of innovation, sustainability, and creative tension from health care literature.
- Description of key sustainability factors, outcomes, and barriers.
- Examples of framing sustainability factors, outcomes and barriers within the acute/rehab, community, and university aphasia care settings.
- Discussion of Medicare compliance challenges to sustainability of LPAA programs.

Selected References

Website Resources
Access the Aphasia-Friendly Yosemite Brochure

Aphasia-friendly brochure, Yosemite Story:
NPS Recipient: CSHA 2014 Distinguished Service Award
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EY2glNefCp4

Implementation Science Resource
National Implementation Research Network’s Active Implementation Hub
http://implementation.fpg.unc.edu/module-1/implementation-stages

Kate Bar Interview about Sustainability:

National Park Service All in Accessibility Strategic Plan: 2015-2020
https://www.nps.gov/aboutus/upload/All_In_Accessibility_in_the_NPS_2015-2020_FINAL.pdf

Contacts
Ellen Bernstein-Ellis, Director, Aphasia Treatment Program, CSU East Bay, Ellen.Bernstein-Ellis@csueastbay.edu

Darla K. Hagge  Professor, Founder/Director, NeuroService Alliance, CSU Sacramento, hagge@csus.edu

Maura English Silverman, Founder/CEO, Triangle Aphasia Project, Unlimited Cary, North Carolina, maura@aphasioproject.org